 WELCOME TO NICOLA COLE ***

Nicola is the Head of Schools at Guildford Cathedral and a colleague of Rachel's, who will be preaching at our morning service at St Peter's today.

 TODAY - SUNDAY 22 MARCH – SURREY HALF MARATHON ***

As Westfield Road and New Lane will be closed for the Half Marathon there will be no services at All Souls' and St Mark's this week.

All are welcome to a United service at St Peter's at 10.00am or to visit the refreshments team at St Mark's between 9.00am and 11.00am, who are catering for spectators as they watch Jonathan, Dave Bush and 3000 others run.

(Those attending St Peter's need to be aware that Kingfield Road will also be closed for the early part of the morning so that you may need to follow a diversionary route until all the race starters have run past Sainsburys!)

 BISHOP ANDREW'S FUNERAL

This has been arranged for tomorrow, Monday 23 March at 12 noon at Guildford Cathedral. As there won't be enough room for everyone to attend who would like to go, it is by invite only to the cathedral. However, it will be livestreamed to Christ Church in Woking town centre, which all are welcome to attend. It will also be possible to watch at home on YouTube at https://youtu.be/ohrS37i-h_M.

 WINNER, WINNER!

Last week a team of Old Woking bellringers took part in the Guildford Diocesan Guild 6 bell striking competition at Epsom Common, competing against 7 other teams from across the diocese, and were delighted to win!

This is an outstanding result as there were some very strong teams competing. Congratulations to Alison, Rachel, Eliot, Doug, Simon and Richard. Do have a word with one of them if you'd like to find out more about bellringing.
